A Pathway To Learning

GREATBASE TENNIS CURRICULUM

Early Childhood Development

Ages 4-7
The Early Childhood Development Program delivers the GreatBase Tennis Curriculum in an age-appropriate way.

Skill Acquisition

Applying Information
In this phase, the student will work to:

- Apply the information learned in the previous level
- Make contact with the ball, while maintaining form

Skill Acquisition Plus

Implement Information
In this phase, the student will work to:

- Maintain appropriate contact point, aim, and control of the ball in a live ball situation

Competitive Training Plus

Master the Information
During this phase, the student has learned all the information and is working on refining his or her skills in competitive, live ball situations.

Competitive Training

Execute Information
During this phase, the student will work to:

- learn to apply the information in the previous level to a competitive live ball situation
- Players at this level are learning to compete, while maintaining an emphasis on development, rather than winning

Video Assessment

Abbreviated Assessment: $40

- Film of 3 basic shots, (forehand, backhand, and serve) from one angle
- Allows a baseline measurement of student's level
- Required for ALL Junior Development students, except complete beginners.

Technical Assessment: $125
Includes 7 strokes filmed from 3 angles, skills test, and tie-breaker test. The player will be sent a video link to a voice-over analysis and classroom assessment of the player's performance by one of our trained coaches.

Tactical Assessment: $125
A video recording of your match play with an assessment and analysis by one of our trained coaches.

Technical & Tactical Assessments: $225
Package price for both assessments

Skill Information

Acquiring Information
In this phase, students will work to:

- Improve their overall tennis I.Q.
- Pass a quiz on the GreatBase Tennis online course
- Begin to build and implement an at-home practice routine
- Learn about and set short and long-term goals
- Determine their Myers-Briggs personality type
- Learn the information and checkpoints of the seven basic tennis strokes
