A Pathway To Learning

GREATBASE TENNIS CURRICULUM

Early Childhood Development

Ages 4-7
The Early Childhood Development Program delivers the GreatBase Tennis Curriculum in an age-appropriate way.

Video Assessment

Abbreviated Assessment: $40

- Film of 3 basic shots: (forehand, backhand, and serve) from one angle
- Allows a baseline measurement of student's level
- Required for ALL Junior Development students, except complete beginners.

Technical Assessment: $125

Includes 7 strokes filmed from 3 angles, skills test, and tie-breaker test. The player will be sent a video link to a voice-over analysis and classroom assessment of the player's performance by one of our trained coaches.

Tactical Assessment: $125

A video recording of your match play with an assessment and analysis by one of our trained coaches.

Technical & Tactical

Assessments: $225

Package price for both assessments

Skill Information

Acquiring Information

In this phase, students will work to:

- Improve their overall tennis I.Q.
- Pass a quiz on the GreatBase Tennis online course
- Begin to build and implement an at-home practice routine
- Learn about and set short and long-term goals
- Determine their Myers-Biggs personality type
- Learn the information and checkpoints of the seven basic tennis strokes

Applying Information

In this phase, the student will work to:

- Apply the information learned in the previous level
- Make contact with the ball, while maintaining form

Skill Acquisition Plus

Implement Information

In this phase, the student will work to:

- Maintain appropriate contact point, aim, and control of the ball in a live ball situation

Competitive Training Plus

Master the Information

During this phase, the student has learned all the information and is working on refining his or her skills in competitive, live ball situations.

Competitive Training

Execute Information

During this phase, the student will work to:

- learn to apply the information in the previous level to a competitive live ball situation
- Players at this level are learning to compete, while maintaining an emphasis on development, rather than winning

Policies

Video Policy: ALL STUDENTS in the SA, ECD, & SAP* Middle/High School groups, must have at a minimum an abbreviated assessment before they may attend the Junior Development Program (complete beginners are exempt.) Students at the CT & CT+ NTS level must have a full technical assessment before entering the program. Please see video assessment sheet for details and pricing.

Sibling Discount: 10% 2nd child, 25% 3rd child, & 50% for 4+ children (not including the 1st child)

Drop-in Policy: Students who are registered for at least one day in a session may attend additional classes at the drop-in rate listed for each class. For weekend classes, please pre-register, and/or email a coach to let them know you'll be attending.

Make-up Policy: Students may make up any classes missed in the session within that same session on a different day. Please inform a coach which day you plan to attend as a makeup day. Missed classes do not carry over from session to session.
