Chip played tennis at Northwest Mississippi Community College where he made it to the MACCC semi-finals for two consecutive years. After transferring to Mississippi State University, he spent two years running an after-school sports program at Palmer Home in Columbus, Mississippi, where he discovered his passion for coaching, mentoring and serving the community. Chip has helped Tennis Memphis partner with organizations across the city and has had the opportunity to build the Junior Development program at Bellevue to over 175+ children.
