TENNIS CLASSES

Play Tennis, Memphis! presents Community Tennis Classes at Glenview and University Parks. The classes will offer an accessible, 8-week, progressive course for beginners and those with limited tennis experience, ages 7 to adult.

Utilizing the internationally recognized Great Base Tennis Curriculum, each week's class builds on what was learned the previous week. By the end of the course, participants will have covered the fundamentals of all seven essential strokes.

The cost is $25 for the entire session. Classes are free to anyone on government assistance, with submitted documentation. Racquets will be provided as needed. Space is limited! Be sure to register before Sept. 19.

Date: Sept. 3 through Oct. 22, 2022 (Saturdays)

Time: 9:30-11:30 a.m.

STAFF SPOTLIGHT: COACH FERGUS O'ROURKE

This month, we're spotlighting one of our newest additions to the Tennis Memphis team – Coach Fergus O'Rourke!

Coach Fergus recently earned his degree from Spring Hill College in Alabama, where he was a part of the men's tennis team and earned merits such as Spring 2022 MVP and Conference Player of the Year 2022. He also attended Lander University, where he was nationally ranked no. 2 in NCAA DII.

Prior to Tennis Memphis, Coach Fergus worked as a professional tennis coach and assistant for clubs in Connecticut, South Carolina and Dublin, Ireland. We're so glad to have you on our team, Fergus!
