

Community Tennis Classes are back at Glenview & University Park!

Play Tennis, Memphis! presents Community Tennis Classes at Glenview and University Parks. The classes will run on Saturdays beginning March 25 and running through May 13 from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and will offer an accessible, progressive course for beginners and those with limited tennis experience, ages 7 to adult.

Utilizing the internationally recognized Great Base Tennis Curriculum, each week's class builds on what was learned the previous week. By the end of the course, participants will have covered the fundamentals of all seven essential strokes.

The cost is $25 for the entire 8-week session. Classes are free to anyone on government assistance, with submitted documentation.

Racquets will be provided as needed. Space is limited! So, be sure to register by March 20. Learn more and register on our website.

Does your child want to play tennis?

Does your child want to learn how to play tennis AND make new friends? Junior Development Session 4 kicks off Monday, March 20 at all tennis centers.

Tennis Memphis' JD program offers tennis instruction and training for players of all levels. By utilizing the Great Base tennis curriculum, JD helps players develop a strong foundation in the fundamentals of the sport while simultaneously emphasizing their character development.

Player Spotlight: Katelyn London

Meet Katelyn! She started playing tennis three years ago with Coach Chip at Tennis Memphis. Katelyn is a player in our High-Performance Plus Program where she spends at least five days a week training on the court. In this month's player spotlight, listen to her share her favorite things about Tennis Memphis and its programming.

We're proud you are a part of our Tennis Memphis family, Katelyn!

It's not too late to sign up for TNT!

Does your child want to join an after-school activity that stimulates their brain and gets them active? You're in luck! Registration for Tennis & Tutoring at Bellevue Tennis Center has been extended to Friday, March 10. This free mentorship program is offered for students in grades 4-8, Monday through Friday from 4 to 6 p.m.

Stop by Bellevue Tennis Center or contact Katarina Sims at ksims@tennismemphis.org to register.

Here's what they can look forward to this semester:

- * Starting every Wednesday, Coach Tony Nichols will host a "Man of the House" mentorship program with the scholars of TNT.
- * March is Women's History Month. Ladies, we'd love to have you stop by the center to share stories of inspiration and empowerment, as well as check out the crafts and activities the children in the program will be working on to celebrate and honor women in sports.

* Be sure to follow TNT on Instagram at @TNT_ignitors901 for program updates and opportunities to volunteer.

Meet our new TNT manager, Katarina Sims.

- Katarina played varsity singles and doubles in high school in Milwaukee and collegiate tennis at Lane College, where she received her bachelor's of criminal justice in 2016.
- She moved to Memphis

the summer
of 2021
and started working for
